

Mid wales holidays Recreation and enjoyable & enjoyable

Mid-wales holiday homes offer static homes in mid wales, we own and operate these static homes in Aberystwyth, Clarach Bay, including Borth. We cater for family holidays and relaxing breaks away for all ages.

Locations of our holiday homes.

Our static holiday homes are located in lovely locations on three different holiday parks, Aberystwyth holiday village, Clarach bay holiday village and Brynnowen which is a Parkdean resorts park, our other two are on private family operated holiday parks.

One holiday park has a 12 month season apart from the facilities.

We also cater for different types of holidays, relaxing and fun filled.

Mid wales holidays offer holidays to family's of all ages, including couples. we work hard to keep and maintain all of our static holiday homes to the highest standards and do our best to keep all our prices reasonable and competitive, as we operate Bronze to gold standard grades to suite all budgets, we work hard to ensure your holiday goes without any issues, as we don't operate the holiday parks directly we only privately own and operate the static holiday homes

Extra information

What ever you are looking for we can help you whether it is fun action packed or just a relaxing time away with family.

Our static homes are all different in their own way but we assure you that you will have a lovely time.

You can book short stays or long stays as we cater for all.

We have deals on from time to time.

We welcome families of all ages.

Our holiday homes are all close to the beach, some are only two minutes away and our furthest one is about 10 minuets away but they all are local to the main town of Aberystwyth with good public transport links.

About us

We operate and manage private holiday homes in Mid Wales area, we have been trading 2 years, we started off with 1 static holiday and now we own 5 on 3 different holiday parks, we cater for families, fun packed to relaxation holidays, we aim to expand our network of static holiday home hire through-out 2020 & 2021

We are here to supply high quality relaxing holiday's at cost effective rates that include value for money, we operate on family values to ensure a fun packed and relaxing stays even if they are for short stays or long stays-weekends, Monday to Friday, or full week Saturday to Saturday if you have any disability's we will advise which site and static holiday home is most suitable as the holiday parks are operated direct by their owners and management.

We are able to take payments via card over the phone or bank transfer, we are able to offer paying instalments via direct debit.

We are here to help and assist you on your time away with family & friend's. We believe in family enjoyment, and we hope you have memories to remember for years to come.

We believe that all holidays should be affordable as we been there ourselves when booking holidays over the years as we found some where very expensive and over priced, our aim and commitment is to keep our rates fair as possible with our running cost of each holiday home, we will do our best to keep prices fair as possible as some times this can be very hard to keep inline with our running costs, but we will advertise special offers & late deals when possible.
